

GENERAL NOTICES.

Rocky Mountain Drab Beaver Hat.—Corner Pine and Nassau-st, invites the attention of his customers and the public to his beautiful White and Drab Beaver Hats. The lightness and gentility of this hat and its extensive use last season, has induced him to get up the article in the most rich and elegant manner. He has also the famous Gentleman's Straw and other hats of the latest descriptions. BIRD.

SUMMER RETREATS.

SEA BATHING.—CAPE ISLAND, N. J.—CONGRESS HALL, formerly kept by J. Miller, is now open for the reception of visitors. The houses during the past year, have been enlarged and improved. A life boat, exclusively for this house, will always be in attendance upon the bathing grounds.

Congress Hall is situated on a elevated ground, the view of the ocean from it is unobstructed. There is a spacious drive leading from the salt marsh or bay-side, nor are visitors annoyed with musquitos, as in houses situated on low grounds, and near the marsh; they are not subjected to the inconvenience of traveling through the hot sand, and are thus enabled to enjoy the bathing without the communication therewith being private.

These important advantages, render the location of Congress Hall decidedly the best on the Island.

The steamer KENNEBECK and PENOBSCOT, leave the foot of Albany street, New York, on Tuesday, Thursdays, and Saturdays, and bring passengers at Cape May on the following morning.

The proprietor, thankful for the liberal patronage he has heretofore received, will endeavor, during the present season, to give satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call. W. B. MILLER, Proprietor.
